2. Evaluator's Statement

Classes in The College of New Jersey Honors Program ask students to think critically and creatively, to be independent yet highly engaged in the classroom, to be open to broad areas of inquiry and viewpoints, and to communicate and write at a high level of competence. Please comment on the candidate's ability to thrive and contribute to learning in such classes. Strong grades are not required for acceptance to Honors, we are looking for individuals who will benefit from being in the program, beyond what other TCNJ program have to offer.
